Comparatives Adjectives

eslvideo.com Quiz by: Serna2023

1. What dessert does Tom want?

○ a.) The giant sundae.

○ b.) The cake.

○ c.) The plain fruit salad.

2. How much does the sundae cost compared with the cake?

○ a.) It costs less than the cake.

○ b.) It costs more than the cake.

○ c.) It costs the same as the cake.

3. Why is the sundae's price okay with Tom?

○ a.) It is a healthy dessert.

○ b.) It is a special day.

○ c.) It is the cheapest dessert.

4. Which laptop is cheaper?

○ a.) The black laptop.

○ b.) Both laptops cost the same.

○ c.) The silver laptop.

5. How is the silver laptop different from the black one?

○ a.) It is lighter.

○ b.) It is cheaper.

○ c.) It is heavier.

6. What is wrong with Tom's old laptop?

○ a.) It is too small.

○ b.) It is too fast.

○ c.) It is too slow.

7. Why does one person like the red car?

○ a.) It is cheaper than the blue car.

○ b.) It is bigger than the blue car.

○ c.) It is easier to drive than the blue car.

8. Which car is cheaper?

○ a.) The red car.

○ b.) Both cars cost the same.

○ c.) The blue car.

9. Why is the red car better for long drives?

○ a.) It is safer than the small car.

○ b.) It is cheaper than the small car.

○ c.) It is smaller than the blue car.

10. What is harder about using the red car?

○ a.) Putting their bags in it.

○ b.) Choosing it.

○ c.) Driving it.

Transcript

I am ready for dessert. I want the giant sundae.

Wow, that bowl is bigger than your head, Tom! It is not healthy.

But it is tastier than a plain fruit salad. Look at the price, too.

The sundae is more expensive than the cake.

That is okay. It is a special day. My love for sundaes is stronger than my diet!

Fine, I'll have the giant sundae too.

Sarah, look at this black laptop. It is cheaper than the silver one.

Yes, but it is very heavy. The silver laptop is lighter than the black one.

You're right. It is also smaller than my old laptop.

It is much better than your old one, Tom. Your old laptop is too slow!

Okay, let's buy the silver one. It is faster than the black laptop.

We need to choose a car for our road trip. This red car is huge! I like it. It is bigger than the blue car.

We have a lot of bags. But the blue car is cheaper than the red one. Gas is very expensive right now.

True, but the red car is safer than the small one for long drives.

Okay, but you are driving. Driving it is harder than driving a small car!

Don't worry, I am a good driver.